Open Access Agreement

The author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, as defined in the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §101, the employer named below, hereby agree to licence the Work to EAI under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution Licence, Version 3.0 Unported (<http://www.creativecommons.org/licenses/by/3.0/legalcode>). This licence covers all material to be published as part of the Work including but not limited to tables, figures, graphs, movies, other multimedia files, and all supplemental materials.

General Terms

- The undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to grant and execute this licence.
- The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Publisher from any damage or expense that may arise in the event of a breach of any of the warranties set forth above.
- In the event the above work is not accepted and published by the EAI or is withdrawn by the author(s) before acceptance by the EAI, the foregoing copyright transfer shall become null and void and all materials embodying the Work submitted to the EAI will be destroyed.
- For jointly authored Works, all joint authors should sign, or one of the authors should sign as authorized agent for the others.
- EAI CCER proceedings are included in the European Digital Library (EUDL-<http://eudl.eu/series/CCER>) and submitted for inclusion in all leading indexing services, including EI Compendex, ISI Web of Science, Scopus, CrossRef, Google Scholar, DBLP, and more. However, indexing is not granted.
